Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the percentage of Non-Chinese speaking (NCS) students?
   About 20% of our students are non-Chinese speaking.

2. Can I apply to a DSS school and a subsidized school at the same time?
   Yes.

3. If my child is admitted, will he/she take part in the Central Allocation?
   No. If your child is admitted to our school, you need to sign an undertaking with us, declaring that your child will not take part in the Central Allocation.

4. Will parents be interviewed?
   No, parents will not be interviewed.

5. Will there be any written tests?
   No written tests will be arranged.

6. How many applicants will be shortlisted to attend the second interview?
   About 25% of the applicants will be shortlisted to attend the second interview.

7. If my child's name is not on the admission list, will he/she be on the waiting list?
   Yes, your child will be automatically put on the waiting list.

8. How many school places will be left for the Second Phase in June?
   The number of school places left for the Second Phase in June is not fixed.

9. If my child is not admitted in the First Phase, does he/she need to apply again in the Second Phase?
   Yes, he/she needs to submit a new application.

10. If my child did not apply in the First Phase, can he/she apply in the Second Phase? If yes, will his/her chance be lower than those who applied in the First Phase?
    Yes, we welcome application from everyone. We will treat every application in a fair way. No privileges will be given to those unsuccessful applicants in the First Phase.