

Ladies and Gentlemen, esteemed alumni, honored guests, and cherished friends,

It is with immense joy and pride that I stand before you today as the president of our Alumni Union. On behalf of the entire committee and our dedicated team, I extend a warm and heartfelt welcome to each and every one of you. It is truly wonderful to see so many familiar faces, as well as new ones, gathered here to celebrate our shared journey and the bonds that unite us.

As we come together in this beautiful setting, let us take a moment to reflect on the incredible experiences that have shaped us during our time at TSL. The spirited debates, the annual concerts, the friendships forged in the heat of competition, and the invaluable lessons learned both inside and outside the classroom—these memories are the foundation of our alumni community.

Today, we stand not just as individuals, but as a collective force, a network of diverse talents and perspectives. Each of you has gone on to make significant contributions in your respective fields, and it is this shared commitment to excellence that continues to elevate our alma mater. Whether you are an entrepreneur, an educator, a KOL, an artist, or a leader in your community, your achievements reflect the values instilled in us during our time at TSL.

As we gather here, let us also remember the importance of giving back. Our alumni union is not just a place for nostalgia; it is a platform for collaboration, mentorship, and support. Together, we can create opportunities for current students, foster professional development, and strengthen the ties that bind us to our beloved institution. I encourage each of you to engage with our initiatives, share your expertise, and inspire the next generation of leaders.

In the coming days, we have a fantastic lineup of events and activities planned that will allow us to reconnect, share stories, and celebrate our achievements. I invite you to participate fully, to network with one another, and to rekindle the friendships that have enriched our lives.

As we embark on this journey together, let us remember that our strength lies in our unity. Let us celebrate our differences, embrace our shared values, and work together to make a positive impact in our communities and beyond.

Thank you for being here today, for your unwavering support, and for your commitment to our alumni union. Together, we can continue to build a legacy that future generations will be proud to inherit.

Welcome back, and let's make this a memorable gathering!

Thank you.